

2026 PwC International Tax Cup Case Analysis Competition

The co-organizer of the "2026 PwC International Tax Cup Case Analysis Competition" is the Tax Research Society of National Taipei University. This year marks the 12th edition of the competition, with the theme:

"An Era of Change: Multinational Corporations' Responses and Strategies Amid Tariff Wars and Exchange Rate Fluctuations."

The competition is hosted and guided by PwC Taiwan, aiming to encourage college and university students nationwide to focus on international tax issues, enhance practical analysis skills, and foster interdisciplinary integration. Students interested in international taxation are warmly invited to participate.

Registration Period: From now until October 13, 2026

Attached are the competition rules and registration form. The latest updates will also be posted on the competition's Facebook page:

Search on Facebook: PwC International Tax Cup Case Analysis Competition